G. SHAW,
Respectfully informs the public, he has received from
ROBERT JOHNSTON,
Apothecary, No. 20, Green street, Soho, London, a fresh and very considerable supply of his highly esteemed Medicine.

AWARE of the depredations made on every public medicine of established repute and extensive sale, R. Johnston, obtained the King of England's Patent for his invention, not "to recommend" but "to distinguish," Whitehead's Essence of Mustard from

"Five years have now elapsed since Mr. Johnston first made known to the world this very extraordinary medicine; during this short period, its efficacy has been so clearly demonstrated that its sale has far exceeded any former example; comparitively there are few families in England or the United States which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects and with heartfelt satisfaction he had the happiness to declare Whitehead's Essence of Mustard has cured more persons afflicted with Rheumatisms, Goat, Lumbago, Palsy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies.

Than all the Medicines ever before made public, indeed, the instances, of its efficacy and letters of acknowledgment from "the most respectable characters" are so numerous that a large volume could not possibly contain them, it has also obtained the approbation of the most eminent men of the faculty and is honoured by the use and recommendation of the first families in England, Ireland and America.

A COUNTERFEIT.

R. JOHNSTON has reason to believe a large quantity under the name of "Improved Essence of Mustard," as well as many others has been shipped for America, and considers it his duty to prevent imposition and disappointment.

He therefore requests the afflicted to be particular in the purchase of his bottles, boxes, labels, and bill of directions which are closely copied, and words "by royal authority," artfully substituted for the words "by the king's patent" which may elude common observation.

The Genuine is distinguished by the signature of R. Johnston, in his own hand writing on each label, and as an additional security is further signed on the outside wrapper by his only agent for the United States, G. SHAW, No. 129 Chesnut street, Philadelphia, by whom it is sold wholesale and retail, in pills and in a fluid state at one dollar each, box or bottle

FOR CHILBLAINS, SPRAINS AND BRUISES,

It is a certain and effectual remedy, seldom requiring more than three or four applications.

To the candid and liberal of the FACULTY, R. Johnston respectfully submits the following observations. The Fluid Essence of Mustard, is an embrocation worthy their particular attention, it differs in its nature from all others, and is out of the beaten tract of general practice—It is an active stimulant, easily controuled; may be either increased or diminished in its strength by the different methods of use, it is both elegant and convenient and is frequently found in the extemporaneous prescriptions of their brethren in England.

The above Genuine Medicine, as well as many others of the first celibrity may be had by appointment of G. Shaw, of Mr. G. Bailey, Wilmington, Dr. Barrill, Maiden Lane, New-York, Messrs. Bailey and Walker, Charleston, William Black, Salem, (N. J.) Charles Hunitch, Lancaster, A. C. Jorden, Norfolk, John Roberts, do. David Keen, Sweet Springs, Virginia, R. Lee, Baltimore, I. & J. Mantz, Fredericktown, Maryland, G. W. Mancius, Albany, Dr. Vansolingen, New-York, Messrs. Tifford & Son, do. Messrs. Ross & Douglas, Pittsburg, John Webster, Wilmington, James Wilson, do. Richard Winter & Co. Savannah, and in every principal town in the United States.

N.B. The public are desired to enquire for Whitehead's Essence of Mustard, all others being a base and spurious imitation.
GEO. SHAW.
129, Chesnut street, where Venders may be supplied.
"Caution against Counterfeits."

Agents are appointed by G. Shaw in every principal town of the United States, and there is no certainty of purchasing the Genuine Essence of Mustard in any part of America, unless it is signed on the outside wrapper by G. Shaw, No. 129, Chesnut street, Philadelphia, where shopkeepers are supplied and a liberal discount allowed them.

PHILADELPHIA,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 15.

MR. FENNO,

THE following extracts from a charge delivered by Judge RUSH to the Grand Jury in Northampton county, on his circuit the laſt month, are publiſhed at the requeſt of a number of friends. They are the more willingly publiſhed, as the latter extract which concludes the addreſs, is ſaid to have given great offence to ſome perſons, and to have been groſsly miſrepreſented by others, in order that a correct idea may be formed, whether it contains a deviation from former profeſſions, which has been ſuggeſted to be the caſe. In the mean time, the writer is too thoroughly convinced of the truth and propriety of his ſentiments, to retract a ſingle obſervation, whoever may be diſpleaſed; or to make apologies to either party, for his feeble endeavors to ſupport the tottering fabric of government, by conſiderations drawn from the practice of virtue and religion.

"Nor can we admit in the claſs of patriots thoſe perſons, who ungenerouſly deny their country, in the hour of danger and diſtreſs, that aid and comfort ſhe has a right to demand of every individual. At a time like the preſent, when we are alarmed with the report of invaſion from abroad, and are agitated with diſcontent and inſurrection at home, no ſincere lover of his country can juſtify to himſelf embarraſſing the meaſures of government; becauſe ſuch conduct neceſſarily tends to cheriſh the deſigns of our enemies, and ultimately to involve religion, law and government in one common ruin. At a time like this, every friend of his country will feel the indiſpenſable neceſſity of unanimity; and if he has any objections to the conſtitution, or to the adminiſtration of government, he nobly lays them aſide, and gives up all oppoſition till the ſtorm has blown over. The difference in the various forms of government, and in adminiſtering the laws, are in his opinion, objects of inferior conſideration, trifles light as air, when compared with our national exiſtence and independence. "It is ſtill our duty", exclaimed a Britiſh admiral to his ſailors, "to defend our country into whatever hands the adminiſtration of the government may fall."* A noble and generous ſentiment, that ſhould be graven on the breaſt of every man, and actuate his conduct! Perverted indeed muſt be the underſtanding, and hard muſt be the heart that can abandon its country to internal diſorders, or to the ravages of a foreign foe, for no other reaſon than a difference in judgment on certain political meaſures; while it is acknowledged on all hands the eſſential rights of freedom are ſafe and untouched. Infallibility is the portion of no human being; and nothing ſhort of it can authorize an oppoſition ſo inveterate and deadly, as to riſque the exiſtence of government itſelf, rather than acquieſce in laws repugnant to our views of propriety. The opponents to government will candidly confeſs, it is poſſible they may be wrong in their deduction of conſequences from certain laws, and that they are no more entitled to the character of prophets than thoſe who ſupport it. Upon theſe grounds it is the duty of one and all to join heart and hand in the moſt vigorous exertions to ſave our country from being overwhelmed by popular commotions from within, or by hoſtile invaſion from abroad.

Nor can we eſteem thoſe perſons to be patriots, who baſely withold from government that pecuniary aſſiſtance, without which it is impoſſible to ſupport it. Wilfully neglecting or refuſing to make return of our property when legally called upon, or deſignedly rendering a partial account, or in any other manner evading the payment of our juſt proportion of taxes, is in the higheſt degree mean, ſcandalous and diſhoneſt. Every ſtratagem in conſequence of which we pay leſs than we ought, or in the caſe of ſmuggling, by which the duty is altogether avoided, are infamous frauds on the reſt of ſociety. Should a man, poſſeſſed of a handſome property, after having been ſheltered for years from the rage and inclemency of the ſeaſons, exert all the arts of chicanery to avoid making a reaſonable compenſation to the owner of the houſe, he would juſtly be expoſed to univerſal contempt, as a ſhameleſs and impudent knave. Nor does he deſerve to be viewed in a leſs obnoxious light, whoſe diſhoneſt or niggardly ſpirit is unwilling to make ſuitable acknowledgement for the numerous bleſſings he is daily receiving from the hand of government, and from a ſtate of ſociety. The payment of taxes is agreeable to the practice of all nations, and is the obvious dictate of common ſenſe, to which Chriſtianity has always added her ſolemn injunction. The ſame divine authority that has forbidden the perpetation of murder and adultery, has commanded us to "render unto Cæſar, the things that are Cæſar's—tribute to whom tribute is due—cuſtom to whom cuſtom—fear to whom fear—and honour to whom honour." When we reflect that this precept was delivered in the reign of Tiberius or Nero, two of the greateſt tyrants of antiquity, we have no reaſon to ſuppoſe it derived any part of its ſanction from the character of the ſovereign, or the peculiar equity of his laws. Upon us therefore who enjoy an almoſt unlimited freedom, ſcarcely compatible with the exiſtence of civil government and order, this precept muſt apply with the utmoſt force, and be much more obligatory than it was on the people to whom it was immediately addreſſed."

"It cannot then be denied, that the public proſperity of our land, depends upon the virtue of the people, and that the practice of vice, like a cancer in the natural body, will at laſt extend itſelf to the vitals of the country, and cut off our national exiſtence. If this be the caſe, we may ſafely aſſert, that no man loves his country who lives in the habitual violation of any rule in her moral code; becauſe by ſo doing he contributes his aid to accompliſh her deſtruction. He may call himſelf a federaliſt or anti-federaliſt—a republican or a democrat—or whatever elſe he pleaſes; it is certain, he is but a pretender to the character of a patriot. It is impoſſible he can love his country, whoſe life and actions are hoſtile to her true intereſts. Party and perſonal prejudices he may poſſeſs in abundance, which to the world, and perhaps to himſelf, he may cover with the mantle of zeal for the public good. But the love of his country is a ſtranger to his heart. Examine for a moment, gentlemen, the force of this obſervation by your own experience in private life. Suppoſe one of your neighbors, to profeſs a regard and affection for you, and at the ſame time to make a practice of thwarting your views and defeating the plans you had laid to promote your happineſs or your intereſt. There is no doubt you would deſpiſe his profeſſions, and call him a hypocrite. Nor can he be pronounced any thing better, who tells you he loves his country, and is at the ſame time habitually infringing thoſe laws, on which her ſalvation and proſperity eſſentially depend. Away with ſuch patriotiſm! It is "Hail, Maſter!" with the lips, and at the ſame inſtant, a ſtab to the heart. I call that man a diſorganizer, let his political principles be what they may, who is ſpreading through the moral world, the ſeeds of diſorder and vice, and thereby ſapping the foundation of all government. Our country may well expoſtulate with the immoral man in language uſed of old time—"If you love me, you will keep my commandments—Ye are my friends, if ye do whatſoever I command you." In ſhort, gentlemen; as in chriſtianity, ſo it is in patriotiſm—Obedience is the unerring criterion, the ſole deciſive mark of affection. If you really love your country you will obſerve her laws, and her ſtatutes which are framed to promote and to perpetuate her Welfare. Believe and forgive me—a gambling, lying, drunken or ſwearing patriot, is as great a contradiction as a whoring, ſwearing or drunken chriſtian. though in the practical eſtimation of the two characters, mankind have made a wide difference. The hypocritical pretenſions of the patriot are too often ſucceſsfully played off, while thoſe of the pretended chriſtian are ſure to exclude him from the character. When we urge the neceſſity of ſupporting government by means of religion, ſomething more is expected than a cold aſſent to its principles and its doctrines.

Heu- *Virtus laudatur et alget.

If the public inſtitutions eſtabliſhed for the purpoſe of impreſſing the precepts of religion are deſerted and neglected, it is the height of folly to expect government will derive advantage from any ſyſtem of religion whatever, it being evidently impoſſible there ſhould be ſuch a thing as religion in the world, without ſome forms of public worſhip, and the ſolemn acknowledgement of the Deity and his controuling providence, in our ſocial capacity.

What ſhall we ſay then of thoſe perſons who by their language, or their example, diſcourage the religious inſtitutions of our country? It is impoſſible to rank them in the claſs of patriots, or friends to ſocial order. As to thoſe who openly go about to aboliſh all religion, there can be no doubt the tendency, if not the very object of their labors, is univerſal anarchy and miſery—In neglecting its inſtitutions they act therefore perfectly in character. But the well-wiſhers of government among us, the party called federaliſts, and who are diſtinguiſhed by their avowed adherence to the conſtitution, are in this reſpect peculiarly reprehenſible. Like falſe and inadequate props, they overturn the very building they mean to ſupport. They weakly attempt to accompliſh the end, without making uſe of the requiſite means, and act a part altogether inconſiſtent and irrational.

It is readily acknowledged, that immoral men often render eſſential ſervice to their country. Some of the moſt worthleſs and profligate of the human race, have been the honored inſtruments in the hands of providence of procuring the greateſt national bleſſings. Henry the eighth and the Duke of Marlborough contributed eminently by their actions to the glory and preſervation of the Engliſh nation; but no body ever ſuppoſed they were influenced by a love of their country. Caprice, promotion, or the whiſtling of a name, have given birth to the greateſt atchievments recorded in hiſtory. What would you think of a man who in the very act of conferring a favor on an acquaintance, ſhould inflict the moſt deadly wounds on his perſon?—Would you believe he had any affection for your murdered friend?—You certainly would not. Juſt ſo much true patriotiſm has that man, who by his vices is daily diffuſing through ſociety the moſt malignant poiſon; and at the ſame time, from pride or ſome other motive, perfectly compatible with a heart dead to every ſentiment of public virtue, is occaſionally performing an act that redounds to his country's welfare.

The true notion of patriotiſm, is a principle of obedience to the laws of God, and of our country, manifeſting itſelf in the diſcharge of our religious, moral and ſocial duties. This is ſubſtantial patriotiſm within the reach of every man, high and low, rich and poor, and that does not evaporate in empty noiſe about the Rights of Man, or the Virtue of Federaliſm. It is the ſort of patriotiſm we ſtand in need of at this critical juncture. A country over-run with moral diſorders, cannot be long exempt from political paroxiſms of convulſive and fatal tendency. Groundleſs and futile are the apprehenſions entertained by ſome perſons to the cauſe of liberty, from our Rulers—who deriving their exiſtence from popular election, the inſtant their oppreſſive hand is felt by the people, that inſtant they will remove it, with the ſame facility the "Lion ſhakes the dew drops from his mane." The only real ſource of danger to our country ariſes from the conduct of the people themſelves, and from the alarming progreſs of infidelity and the decay of morals among us. It is a truth eſtabliſhed on uniform experience that where the manners of a people are repugnant to the execution of a law, the arm of legiſlative power has been found too feeble to enforce it. In ſupport of this obſervation I may appeal to the deteſtable practice of common ſwearing, which keeps its ground in oppoſition to the laws of the land, and to every principle of religion, decency, and morality. Read over if you pleaſe, the Act of Pennſylvania for the ſuppreſſion of vice and immorality; and it is an hundred to one, but the firſt company afterwards you enter, eſpecially if it be in a tavern, will exort the melancholy reflection, that the laws of the land are a perfect ſatire on the morals of the people. Vain and worſe than vain, are laws for the preſervation of government, if the people are too debauched and corrupt to execute them. If we are in earneſt in our wiſhes to ſave our country we muſt therefore begin by a reformation of her morals. We muſt make good the tree, if we expect good fruit from it. In a repreſentative government, no truth can be more important or ſelf-evident than this. Let us then, gentlemen, in our ſeveral ſtations encourage virtue, and diſcourage vice in others. In an eſpecial manner, perſons of authority and influence, ſhould promote the cauſe of good morals. Every individual ſhould diſcharge his duty, as a part of the grand community, with a view to the production of the public good and general happineſs.

Above all things, gentlemen, the principles of chriſtianity ſhould be cheriſhed, and its religious inſtitutions be encouraged by every man who wiſhes well to his country. A government like ours, floating on the precarious tide of public opinion, can be held ſecurely by nothing elſe, but the principles of religion; and if it be once driven from this anchor, by the ſtorms of irreligion and licentiouſneſs, it will quickly be overwhelmed by waves of popular fury and violence.—Well might the great Monteſquieu ſpeaking of chriſtianity and the tranſcendent excellence of its moral code, exclaim with rapture "how admirable is that religion, which, while it ſeems only to have in view the felicity of the other world, conſtitutes the happineſs of this." The precepts of this religion which teach us to be diligent in our ſeveral ſtations—to govern our paſſions—to be obedient to our ſuperiors and rulers—to do good to all men, and whoſe very eſſence is peace and good will to men.—The precepts of this religion reduced to practice, would ſoon change the face of our affairs. Our country would become a band of patriots—order would ariſe from a ſtate of confuſion—harmony take place of diſcord, and the bleſſings of a mild and peaceful government be diffuſed through every part of our nation and land."

NEW YORK, May 13.

A gentleman arrived in town on Saturday, who came out paſſenger in the brig Union, arrived at Boſton in 42 days from Dublin. To him we are indebted for the loan of Dublin papers down to the 23d of March. Though we have nothing from the Continent of Europe later than before received by Capt. Trott, yet we find ſeveral articles relative to Ireland worthy publication; ſome of which we now inſert.

The Iriſh and London trade-ſhips for America, were to ſail in three days after the Union, under convoy.

Flax-ſeed was quick at 7 guinies.

The ſhip Amſterdam Packet, Capt. Crocker, arrived on Saturday, in 55 days from Greenock. nothing by her ſo late as by the arrivals at Boſton.

Similar precautions to thoſe which have been taken in Dublin, are adopted in Cork, to prevent any perſon from quitting the kingdom in that diſtrict, without a paſſport ſigned by the Collector or Surveyor of the port.—This we underſtand will be ſtrictly enforced.

Yeſterday morning ſeveral of the State Priſoners were put on board a veſſel lying in the river, to be conveyed from this country agreeable to the compact made between them and the Government. Two frigates are in the bay to convoy them.—Among thoſe that have been already put on board we have collected the following names:

Kilmainham—T. A. Emmet, J. Chambers, J. Cuthbert. J. Cormick, J. Sweetman, Ed. Hudſon,—Cummings.

Newgate Arthur O'Conner, M. Dowling S. Nelſon, Thomas Ruſſell, Wm. Dowdall.

Bridewell—Roger O'Connor, Hugh Wilſon, E. Sweeney.

Tower—Doctor M'Nevin.

The entire number deſtined to go by this veſſel is ſuppoſed to be forty, as ſo many beds, it is ſaid, have been prepared.

Their deſtination is reported to be ſome part of Great Britain.

Such has been the demand for nitre and ſulphur, the two chief ingredients in the compoſition of gunpowder, that the former is from 9l. to 9l. 10s. the hundred-weight, and the latter 4l.

March, 22.

An American who, on Monday laſt left Paris, relates, that the luxury of that ancient ſcene of diſſipation, exceeds all former periods. Property transferred into hands unaccuſtomed to its uſe and acquired without labour, is rapid in its circulation; and a recent hair dreſſer, or preſent courtezan, frequently waſtes as much a morning as would ſupport a credible family for a year; the multitude, however," in curſes not loud but deep," attribute to the Government the penury under which they labour, thirſt for an opportunity to practice the ſcenes they reprobate. Four of the Directors, apprehenſive for their perſonal ſafety, are inviſible. Barras, whoſe prodigality attaches the deſperate, who had rather live by plunder than by work, keeps public tables, and gives chaſſes and other entertainments, equal in magnificence to thoſe of an Eaſtern Monarch.—The French connection with as well as dominion over, St. Domingo, was conceived to be completely at an end, and that Touſſaint would eſtabliſh his independence through the medium of Britain.

PUBLIC ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

A ſubſcription is now opened for the purpoſe of erecting, in a conſpicuous and fit place, a Public Memorial, inſcribed with the names of thoſe worthy Patriots, in both Houſes of Parliament, who eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves upon the queſtion of a Legiſlative Union—men, whoſe public virtue, unawed by power, and unſhaken by alurements, have given a public evidence of their loyalty and their love for their country. It is the duty of that country, whoſe trade, liberty, and conſtitution they have ſaved, to tranſmit their names and their example to poſterity, together with the names of ſuch other Members as ſhall hereafter join the patriotic band.

Subſcriptions are received at the Bank of the Right Hon. David La Touche and Co. and Sir Thomas Lighton, Bart, and Co. and Mr. D'Olier, Dame-ſtreet.

The die appears to be caſt, and war once more will ravage the plains of Germany. By paſſing the Rhine at Kehl, the ſituation the Franch formerly croſſed it at, Franconia and Suabia lie open to them, and their intent very probably will be to march towards the Danube, and from thence penetrate the Emperor's hereditary territories; for in that caſe, the provinces of both Anterior and Interior Auſtria will be open to attack. We ſhall however ſuppoſe, that the united armies of Francis and the Emperor Paul will not be idle, but that many bloody and dreadful conflicts will ſhortly take place.

The invaſion of Germany, from the northern part of Italy, will be one great object with the French, while all the newly-organized Republics of that country will be obliged to furniſh troops and neceſſary contingencies. It is on the ſide of Germany bordering on Lombardy that the Emperor's hereditary territories are the moſt valuable, and by which Buonaparte ſoon compelled Francis to make a peace, as otherwiſe the terms would have been dictated at the walls of Vienna. Independent of the Italian auxiliaries, the Swiſs Cantons muſt alſo afford aſſiſtance, whoſe troops are deemed as brave a ſet of men as any on the Continent of Europe.

The following letter has been tranſmitted to the General Officers, &c. commanding in this kingdom.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Dublin, 16th March 1799.

"The very diſturbed ſtate of Ireland, at the period of his Excellency's arrival, and the ſubſequent attempts of a foreign enemy to invade this country, prevented the Lord Lieutenant from having an opportunity of reviewing that moſt reſpectable military corps, the yeomany of Ireland, during the laſt year.

"It is, however, his intention, as far as it may be in his power, perſonally to ſee them; and where that cannot be effected, to employ the general officers of the ſtaff, to inſpect the whole body of yeomanry throughout the kingdom in the courſe of the enſuing month.

"The Lord Lieutenant is convinced, that the probability of their being ſoon called again into action, will induce them to appear as complete, and in as good order as poſſible; and he has no doubt that when the day of trial ſhall come, the ſame loyalty and public ſpirit, which have hitherto ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed the yeomanry of Ireland, will animate them to ſtand bravely forward in defence of their King and Country, againſt the moſt inveterate enemies of the Britiſh Empire.

(Signed) G. HEWETT, Adj. Gen."

In purſuance, of a memorial addreſſed to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by eight Juſtices of the peace of the County Mayo, agreed to at a Special Seſſion held at Ballinrobe on the 18 inſt. a Privy Council was held yeſterday at the Caſtle, and proclamation ordered to be iſſued, ſubjecting the country to martial law.

Sugars are, we hear, buyed up for the Hamburgh Market. A circumſtance pleaſing in one reſpect to the friends of Ireland, as it evinces a re-export trade of Weſt-India commodities, the only branch really beneficial to this country.

On Monday laſt was committed to the New Priſon a noted offender Mary O'Hara. The circumſtances under which this woman was taken were rather ſingular; A Gentleman (Mr. Roſborough, of Charles-ſtreet) ſtanding at his own door, ſaw her paſſing the oppoſite ſide of the way, and having known her for many years to be a woman of bad character, he called her over to him and ſearched her, and on her perſon found a ſilver watch with blood on it, alſo Limerick, Cork, Waterford, Clonmel, and Dublin banknotes, with a quantity of gold, likewiſe ſeveral hundred papers with the watermark of the Bank of Ireland, and ready for impreſſion. We hear he went to her lodgings and found a cloth uſed by copperplate printers in workig off impreſſions, which had on it the mark of a guinea and a half notes of the Bank of Ireland

A daring attempt was made laſt Tueſday on the houſe Mr. Armſtrong, of Prieſtown, pariſh of Kilbride, in the county of Meath, by five well armed villains. Finding their attempt vain, they were at length neceſſitated to retire, leaving behind them four very excellent hunters.

BOSTON, May 10.

Captain Deſpon, who left Guadalcupe the 4th of April, has favoured us with the following

DECLARATION OF WAR,
AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

ARRETTE.

The Particular Agent of the Executive Directory at Guadaloupe and its dependencies, has, ever ſince his arrival in the colony, confirmed the diſpoſitions of the Executive Directory of the French Republic, with reſpect to neutral and allied nations:—His meaſures have been calculated to keep union and harmony and to cauſe their colours and their property to be reſpected.

Thoſe meaſures were ſcrupulouſly obſerved with regard to the Americans. The citizens of that nation, who were detained, on his arrival, have been releaſed. Thoſe who were deſtitute of means, have been ſupplied with the ſuccours which their ſituation required; and cartels were provided to carry them to New-York. The cargoes and ſhips ſeized and carried into Guadaloupe and its dependencies were reſtored to the owners; and, to add to the proofs of our averſion from vexations and hoſtilities, the armed ſchooner of the United States, the Revenge, was ſent back to the Preſident.

The Particular Agent of the Directory could not, without aſtoniſhment and indignation, be informed, that in contempt of the free and open conduct obſerved in reſpect to that nation, Mr. Truxton, commanding the American ſhip Conſtellation, mounting FIFTY guns, inſulted the colours of the French republic, and took, in an action wherein he he was aggreſſor, the frigate Inſurgent, whoſe captain had poſitive orders to reſpect the American flag.

Such a piece of hoſtility, exerciſed without a declaration of war, has induced meaſures, the reſult of which leaves no doubt that the American officer, in thus acting, followed the orders and inſtructions of his government.

From the above facts, and the hoſtilities which are daily committed by the Americans ſince the capture of the Inſurgent,

The Particular Agent of the Executive Directory,

Conſidering, that it is his duty to cauſe the flag of the French republic to be reſpected, to protect the commerce and the ſeamen from the riſks they have to run from the Americans, who are cruiſing in force on theſe coaſts:

To adopt meaſures which may be the leaſt prejudicial to negociations that may have began between the two nations; and which may juſtify ſelf-defence againſt aggreſſion and inſults, and even to prevent them:

RESOLVES AS FOLLOWS:

I. The captains and officers who command the veſſels of the republic, and thoſe armed from the ports of Guadaloupe and its dependencies, are authorized, from the date of the publication of the preſent Reſolve, to purſue all American veſſels, whether belonging to the government or to individuals; to ſeize and capture them, without diſtinction, and bring them into the ports of Guadaloupe and its dependencies.

II. The veſſels belonging to the American Government ſhall be kept to be uſed according to the order of the Executive Directory.

III. Such as are the property of individuals, and which may contravene the laws of the republic, and the reſolves of the Executive Directory, reſpecting neutrals and allies, and liable to condemnation, agreeably to the purport of thoſe ſame laws and reſolves, ſhall be, as well as their cargoes, condemned by a judgment of the Tribunal of Commerce, and ſold for the profit of the captors according to cuſtom.

IV. The merchants' veſſels, the papers of which ſhall have been acknowledged by the Tribunal to be regular, and not liable to condemnation, ſhall be ſold, together with their cargoes, and the proceeds thereof depoſited in the public coffers, that it may afterwards be delivered either to the captors or owners, agreeably to the orders of the Executive Directory.

V. In the foregoing diſpoſitions are included, all American veſſels and their cargoes, detained in the ports of Guadaloupe and its dependencies, ever ſince information was received of the aapture of the Inſurgent.

The preſent reſolves ſhall be read, publiſhed, poſted up and regiſtered in the Tribunal of Commerce and Council of the Navy.

All Public Functionaries, Owners and Commanders of ſhips of the Republic, and Privateers, whom it concerns, are hereby ordered to conform to the ſame.

Done at Baſſeterre, in the National Houſe of the Agent, the 24*th* Ventoſe, 7th year of the French Republic, One and Indiviſible.

AFFAIRS IN INDIA.

WAR! WAR!

By the arrival of the Eliza, Capt. Folger, from Calcutta, we are favored with the following particulars regarding the political ſtate of India, wherein it appears that that quarter of the globe is likely to experience the baneful influence of French principles, by the war that has already commenced between Great Britain and Tippoo Sultan, the firm ally of the French nation, conſequently the mortal foe of the Engliſh. In conſequence of an intercepted correſpondence, between Tippoo Sultaun, with Buonaparte and the French Directory, wherein he urges them, in the moſt earneſt manner, to ſend a body of troops to India, to enable him to attack the Engliſh, the earl of Mornington, governer general of India, had left Calcutta, and arrived at Madras, in the beginning of January, in order to co-operate with more effect with the commander in chief of the Britiſh army, who had taken the field with immenſe force, in order to attack Tippoo's capital of Seringapatam, while two other armies of inferior force, had actually moved from Bombay, and Hydrabad, in order to ſubdue the remote provinces of Tippoo; by which it appears that the total annihilation of that power is an event that muſt ſoon take place; as the French, by whom he has been miſled cannot afford him the ſmalleſt aſſiſtance; even the two Great Powers, the Marattas, and the Nizam, it appears are ſo exaſperate againſt Tippoo that they have joined their Forces to thoſe of the Engliſh, in order to deſtroy a Prince, whoſe reſtleſs ambition, has been the cauſe of exciting this formidable combination againſt him. For which purpoſe three large armies of Britiſh and natives had taken the Field the principal one of which had actually marched from Madras, notwithſtanding that Tippoo, had ſupplicated, in the moſt earneſt manner, an accommodation; but it was the univerſal opinion that nothing leſs than the deſtruction of this power would content the combined powers.

On the month of November laſt, a very formidable army, commanded by the Republican General Piron, conſiſting of nearly 15,000 men, and which had been for ſeveral years employed by the Nizam, were attacked and diſperſed by a body of Britiſh troops drawn towards Hydrabad for that purpoſe, it having been diſcovered that General Piron had determined to join his forces with Tippoo. The reduction of this force was effected with little bloodſhed, and General Piron, & nearly 200 French Officers, had been ſent priſoners to Calcutta. Zemaun Shaw, with a large army, had approached the Britiſh Provinces, in the northern parts of Bengal and threatened to create a powerful diverſion in favor of Tipppoo Sultaun, but on that quarter an Engliſh army of 20,000 men was prepared to oppoſe him.

It is ſuppoſed that Zemaun Shaw is inſtigated to this meaſure by Buonaparte, who has, it is reported, diſpatched Ambaſſadors to his Court; although the immenſe diſtance between them totally prevented any idea of ſuccour from Egypt; it was in fact the received opinion in the Eaſt, that Buonaparte's army, would, in a few months be deſtroyed. It cannot therefore, be doubted but the events that will take place in India, during this year, will be of the moſt important nature, and will probably tend, in their conſequences, to place the Britiſh power in that quarter on the moſt firm baſis.

NEW YORK, May 14.

Yeſterday, in obedience to General Orders, the ſeveral uniformed companies and troops of horſe, paraded in front of Trinity Church, Broadway, and marched from thence through Broadway, Beaver, Broad, Wall and Pearl ſtreets—to Bayard's ground where they performed a variety of exerciſes and evolutions in a very ſoldierlike manner. The correctneſs with which they went thro' the ſervice and duties of the day, would have done honor to veterans.

To behold the Youth of our country, the hope of reſpectable families, engaged in military exerciſes—alternatively aſſuming the military and civil diſtinctions—treading the rugged road of levere diſcipline to render the future roads efficient—Voluntarily offering their ſervices and pledging their lives and fortunes for the defence and ſalvation of their country, muſt be highly flattering to American feelings.

To be prepared for the firſt is commendable, even in times of peace—but, at a period like the preſent, when the events of a day—an hour—may render active meaſures indiſpenſible to the public ſafety, it is infinitely more ſo——Though we all ſincerely hope that no portion of our fellow citizens will ever hereafter, by a criminal reſiſtance to the laws, compel the firm ſupporters of our government, and of republicaniſm, to unſheath the ſword, and reduce them to ſubmiſſion—yet, ſhould ſuch an event unhappily occur, there can be no poſſible doubt but OUR Volunteers would turn out with as much alacrity, and execute the duties of Citizen Soldiers as honourably, as thoſe of a ſiſter ſtate, juſt returned from the ſcene of inſurrection.

NEW BRUNSWICK, May 14.

We congratulate our readers on the progreſs of federaliſm in Virginia, and on the ſucceſs of the Federal ticket in the city of New-York.—Truth it is ſeen triumphs, while falſhood ſtands confounded. The preſent may be conſidered as a new era in American politics—Our government may be ſaid to reſt on a more ſure foundation than ever, and bid defiance to the clamours of noiſy demagogues, and the reſtleſs ſpirit of that faction which has ſo long labored to deſtroy all law and all liberty that does not coincide with its licentious principles. It is now decided by the great body of the people of America, that it is better "to ſtand on our own, than on foreign ground;" that uniting under the federal ſtandard is the beſt way to preſerve our liberty and independence, to promote our individual and public intereſt, to make us ſtrong and powerful as a nation, and to give us reſpectability in the eyes of the world.

We never doubted, that the people in general were well affected to our government, ſo far as they were acquainted with its principles. The reaſon why in ſo many places there has been an appearance of diſaffection is, becauſe from the cunning artifice and intrigue of a few wicked deſigning men, falſhood has been ſubſtituted in the place of truth, and many people made to believe things, which never exiſted, except in the diſordered imaginations of the idle, diſcontented and aſpiring few. The film is now removed from their eyes, they ſee their errors, and ſeeing, they believe the truth.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 15.

This morning about 12 o'clock, the Officers of the firſt and ſecond Troop of Volunteer Cavalry, and the Officers of the firſt, ſecond and third City Troops, called upon the editor of the Aurora to know what Troop was alluded to in the Aurora of the 14th inſt. in which it was ſtated, that one of the Troops had lived "at free quarters" on the late expedition to Northampton—One of the Officers addreſſing himſelf to the Editor obſerved, that they had called to know what Troop was meant in yeſterday's Aurora as living at "free quarters" on the late expedition to Northampton—The editor anſwered he would not delignate the troop at preſent: the officer obſerved, it is an eaſy matter for you to ſay what Troop you meant to impilcate. The editor again ſaid he would not at this time—He was then aſked if he would name a time—The Editor anſwered he would not: he was then preſſed to ſay what Troop was meant. The Editor anſwered he would not, becauſe it was an electioneering Trick. The officer then ſaid you are a damned liar, if you ſay I mean this enquiry as an electioneering Trick. The editor anſwered I am not a lyar. The officer then ſaid you can certainly ſay whether you did or did not mean my troop. The Editor ſaid he would not ſay what Troop.—He was then told, you muſt ſay whether you did or did not. The Editor then ſaid he would fight any man with Piſtols; on which it was generally obſerved, dont fight him with Piſtols—whip the raſcal. When, upon the Editor's poſitively refuſing to ſay whether he did or did not allude to any of the City Troops, the officer ſtruck him, and the Editor was forced down ſtairs. When, in the court yard, the Editor was aſked repeatedly to give up the author, which he abſolutely refuſed to do; and was then whipped as he deſerved. After receiving the firſt or ſecond ſtroke, he declared he did not know the author. He was aſked how did you come by your information? He anſwered it was anonymous; after which he again and repeatededly refuſed to give up the author, and was again whipped.

AQUA TINTA.

This pleaſing ſtyle of working in Copperplate, though perhaps as ſimple and eaſy, and certainly more expeditious than any other, has never, we believe, been introduced into this country, 'till within a ſhort time paſt; ſome little things in this line, have lately been produced by Mr. Parkins, a very ingenious Engliſh artiſt, author of the elegant "Monaſtic Remains."

Mr. Savage has nearly finiſhed two large plates in aqua tinta, the one repreſenting the chaſe of the Insurgente by the Conſtellation, and the other, the hard fought and glorious action between thoſe two frigates.

We believe theſe plates are the firſt in that ſtyle ever attempted by an American artiſt. We are happy to ſay, that the execution of them is worthy of a ſubject ſo highly flattering to the national pride of Americans.

GAME.

One would think that the good ſenſe of ſo enlightened a community as ours, might ſupply the deficiency of game laws, ſo much reprobated and ſo little underſtood. It is a ſerious fact, however, that undiſcriminating and unreaſonable gluttony is faſt annihilating a ſource of rational and uſeful pleaſure, which by a little reſtraint might be preſerved in the moſt copious abundance for many years to come. Certain miſerable Pot-Hunters, with more than ſavage malignity, are daily deſtroying at this ſo intereſting a period, great numbers of Partridges, preſerved by gentlemen in Philadelphia, at great expenſe and care, from the ravages of a tedious and ſevere winter.

The trial of the ſix perſons charged with a Conſpiracy, &c. cloſed laſt evening. The Jury returned this morning with their verdict—GUILTY.

☞ The Pennsylvania Claimants to Lands in Luzerne county, in the Wyoming Controverſy, are earneſtly deſired to attend their Committee at HARDIE'S Tavern, in Market-ſtreet on the 17th inſt. at 7 o'clock in the evening, in order to comply with the law in that caſe made and provided.
